

LARRY D. BUTCHER

I'm The Shadow To Your Light 2010
pencil drawing and acrylic on Arches paper

Sponsored by:
Betty & Don Carlyon
Jessalyn & Phil Sturtz

Larry D. Butcher is a retired professor emeritus of art from Delta College where he taught painting and drawing for 39 years. He holds BS and MA degrees from Central Michigan University and post-graduate work from Cranbrook Academy of Art. Butcher has exhibited his paintings, drawings and mixed media work since 1965. He has had 21 one-man shows and has his artwork in the collection of the Saginaw Art Museum, Flint Institute of Arts, Alden B. Dow Center for Art and Design, Dennon Museum Center as well as over 400 private and public collections.